Few Attend Ratepayers Annual Meeting

The annual ratepayers meeting took place on Monday evening in the town council chambers. There were only three ratepayers present.

The school board presented its financial report for the year 1951, and the report was accepted. The problem of school accommodation for the coming year was brought forward. The expected enrollment for the coming term will be so great that accommodations present a grave problem. The Works and Property committee submitted their report. The report showed that halls, offices, 4 rooms and cloak rooms were painted in the high school; 4 rooms and fire escapes were painted in the Central school; track and volleyball court was laid out; fluorescent lights were installed in 2 rooms; $3000.00 was spent in building a garage; painted 2 rooms and repaired fences in West Coleman.

The Principal's report was given and accepted. The June term showed an enrollment of 625, and the December term showed 660. In the Grade 9 examinations, Ralph Ryznar received the Governor-General award for the Pincher Creek-Crows Nest Inspectorate.

In the town council meeting, the minutes of the last ratepayers meeting were read and accepted. The Chief of Police report was given and accepted. The report showed 46 cases under the Criminal Code, 1 under the Juvenile Act, 19 under the Liquor Act, 16 under the Highway Traffic Act, 7 under the Indian Act, 39 under by-law 231, 3 under by-law No. 7. In all there were 131 cases which resulted in fines or sentences. Eleven car accidents were reported and a total of 15 persons during the year had the opportunity to visit the local cells.

The Fire Department report was accepted and congratulations were expressed to this department for their marked improvement in the past year. The Inspectors report was read and accepted. The report highly praised the fine, conscientious work done by the town secretary. A vote of thanks to the secretary was moved and approved by all persons present.

CALLING ALL OLD-TIMERS!

Beginning next issue, the Journal will feature a column telling a little of the history of Coleman and district by the old-timers of the town. In view of the difficulty in knowing all persons who can well be classed as old-timers, it is hoped that if anyone is missed they will let us know. If you have an interesting incident about times and conditions of Coleman in the past that you would like told kindly call the Journal and your reporter will see you.

Friday Declared Holiday Of Mourning

On Tuesday the Government of Alberta decreed that Friday, the day of the funeral of our Beloved King, will be observed as a Holiday of mourning and therefore all places of business as well as Schools and offices will be closed.

Pass Retail Merchants Meet

The C.N.P. Retail Merchants Association was held on Wednesday, Jan. 30. At that time 95% of the merchants were favourable to closing Mondays but a split in opinions since developed in Blairmore.

The town council in Blairmore has not as yet passed a by-law permitting the merchants to close for half a day on Mondays but a petition has been submitted to the council requesting that retail stores in Blairmore be closed for half a day on Mondays. In the meantime those merchants who are not in agreement may remain open all day.

The retailers who have signed the "gentlemen's agreement" will close all day every Monday. Merchants in Bellevue and Hillcrest have been assured of a ministerial order governing the hamlets of Bellevue and Hillcrest by Mr. Korach, M.L.A. Coleman and Frank have already passed their by-law. In the voting that took place regarding the closing of the stores, Bellevue and Maple Leaf showed 82% in favor, Hillcrest 100%, Frank 100%, Coleman 95%, and Blairmore 87.5%.

Places of business not affected by the by-laws or agreement are the post offices, drug stores, liquor stores, restaurants, tobacco shops, newspaper shops, service stations, insurance agencies, theatres and other amusement places.

The stores observing both the by-law and the agreement will remain open all day Wednesdays and will close all day Mondays. This arrangement will go into effect on Monday, Feb. 11.

Long Time Resident Passed Away

Friends and acquaintances were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Janet Wilson, long time resident of Coleman. Mrs. Wilson died at the municipal hospital Thursday, Feb. 7. She was 73. Mrs. Wilson was born in Sterlingshire, Scotland. She came to Canada with her husband, Malthe, in 1921. They resided in Lethbridge until 1923 at which time they took up residence in Coleman. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson retired to Victoria in 1941 but returned to Coleman in 1945. Mr. Wilson died last August and Mrs. Wilson failed very rapidly since the death of her husband.

Mrs. Wilson was very active in the Ladies' Mission of the United Church and in the Order of the Eastern Star of Coleman.

Funeral services were conducted from the United Church on Sunday at 4 p.m. The Minerva Chapter of the Eastern Star gave their services at the church. Interment followed in the United Cemetery.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. P. C. Thomson, of Seattle, four sons, Jim, William, and Adam of Coleman, and Bob of Victoria. Another son, Arthur, died in Coleman in 1928. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson left Seattle when they heard that Mrs. Wilson was falling rapidly and arrived in Coleman yesterday, one day too late for Mrs. Thomson to see her mother alive. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Bill Kinneer. Bob Wilson flew in from Victoria on Saturday.

Mrs. Wilson also leaves 13 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, and a brother A. Gardiner, of Lethbridge.

Millions Of Subjects Mourn His Death

King George VI. will be remembered by a large number of people in Alberta. He with Queen Elizabeth visited the province in May 1939. The writer was one of an assembly gathered on the steps of the Legislative buildings, where the government official reception was headed by the late Premier William Aberhart.

The royal couple received a vociferous welcome, and at one stage of the proceedings, as the King and Queen alighted from their car to proceed up the steps of the Parliament buildings, the enthusiastic crowd of several thousands broke through the lines of troops guarding the enclosure and surged right up to the steps. For a moment or two King George appeared startled by the outburst of welcome, and in striking contrast was the smile with which Queen Elizabeth waved to the crowd.

He was dressed in the blue uniform of the Royal Air Force, and at that time, nearly 13 years ago, he did not appear to be in robust health, and one felt a bond of sympathy for the trying ordeal which royalty has to undergo in observing their kingly duties.

It is well remembered how Premier Aberhart presented him with an address of welcome, a rather unduly large bundle, which the King promptly handed to one of his aides after graciously accepting it.

Then there was an old man standing in the front line of those assembled on the steps, who was then the oldest in Alberta. Queen Elizabeth asked why he didn't sit down, when a small boy piped up — he doesn't want to sit down. The old chap felt it beneath his dignity to think of sitting in the presence of royalty, and both the King and Queen spoke a few words to him, while the late Prime Minister Mackenzie King hovered around the little group.

It was little human touches such as this which endeared the King and his wife to the people. Though the strain of a cross-Dominion tour is indeed heavy, it was always the smiling countenance of the Queen which helped to sustain her husband in what must have been a test of strength.

It is with profound regret that the Canadian people received the news. His voice during his Christmas broadcasts has been heard by millions. It is well known that the impediment in his speech, which caused him embarrassment in the first year or two of his reign, was overcome by that dogged persistence which made him admired for overcoming such a handicap. He never expected to become King. But with the abdication of his brother Edward, who gave up the throne for the "woman I love," kingly duties were thrust upon him, whereas he would have preferred the quiet life of his country estates.

But such is the hand of fate, or Providence. King or commoner, there is no difference as to how or when one may be called from life to death. Yet in these days, when change and turmoil prevail among the nations of the world, there is something grand beyond words in the display of sympathy and affection for the royal family in the passing of King George VI. The British constitution stands fast, in welcoming to the throne Queen Elizabeth the Second.

C. N. P. Teachers Hold Meeting

A regular meeting of the CNP local A.T.A. was held in Blairmore on Thursday, Feb. 7, with 52 members present.

Mr. R. J. Nadeau and Miss I. Selson, councillors to the emergency general meeting held in Edmonton, gave their report.

At the meeting in Edmonton, the executive of the A.T.A. has put forth the policy that because arbitration awards in the past have proved so meagre that it is time the A.T.A. exercise its full rights under the Labor Act. This means taking a strike vote or if necessary actually going on strike.

The question of financing such a strike was discussed by the local and it was moved that the CNP local A.T.A. go on record as being willing to contribute towards a strike fund. This was approved unanimously.

The meeting approved a motion that the local A.T.A. contact the district M.L.A. to persuade the government to raise the contribution to teachers' retirement fund by 2% above the present percentage paid.

For the first time in the history of the local, the Pass teachers are sponsoring a candidate for district representative of the South Western Geographic District. This district includes the school districts and divisions of the Crows Nest Pass, Pincher Creek, St. Mary, Granum, Macleod, Lethbridge city, Lethbridge division and Taber. The candidate is Mr. W. Jallep of Blairmore.

Approximately 40% of the teachers in the Pass have sent in their applications for membership in the Blue Cross hospitalization plan.

It was noted by your reporter that the meetings of the local this year have been above average in attendance and interest.

After the meeting the teachers were treated to a very enjoyable lunch by the Blairmore staff.

Coleman Junior High School Makes Presentation

The Coleman Junior High School student body presented a film strip projector to the Coleman school on Friday afternoon. The projector will be used by all classes.

The film-strip projector was purchased by the junior high school student's union with funds raised by their annual Christmas concert. Last year the students of grades 7, 8 and 9 bought a modern public address system which is now being used by all the school especially by the folk dancing classes.

At Friday afternoon's assembly in the auditorium, Paul Pilowich, president of the junior high school student body presented Mr. Allen with the projector. On hand to thank the junior high were Dolores Ryznar, grade three, representing Division 1; Tommy Knight, Gr. 6, representing Division 2; and Frank Oliva, president of the high school students' union. They expressed their sincere thanks to the students who made this presentation possible.

On behalf of the whole school Mr. Allen accepted the projector and hoped that the spirit and hard work which the junior high school has shown thus far will not die but continue throughout their school years and beyond. He pointed out the wonderful contributions made to the school of past years. Through hard work and initiative past students have purchased two film projectors, a public address system, various pieces of tumbling equipment, and this year the film-strip projector. Mr. Allen also pointed out that such student activities have helped greatly in making the Coleman school the best equipped in the Pass.

Mr. Ondrus demonstrated the projector to the assembly and showed a few colored slides of scenes in the Pass which he himself had taken.

Miners Accept New Agreement

The miners of District No. 18 accepted the new agreement by a large majority as the various coal fields voted on February 8th.

The agreement gives miners $140 a day increase across the board. The retirement pension is increased from $75.00 to $100.00 after the age of 62 and 20 years service. In cases where a miner is unable to continue work and has not yet reached the age of 62 but has 20 years service, he will be given a disability pension of $80.00. This was increased from $67.50.

Mr. W. White, secretary of the local miners' union personally thought that the policy committee had done a very good job in their negotiations.

Town Council Holds Meeting

Members of the town council met in council chambers Tuesday, Feb. 5. Present at the meeting were councillors Ramsey, Wavercan, Woods, Dibblee, Toppano, and Mayor N. E. Abousafy.

The financial statement for the month of January was read by the secretary and accepted by the council. Bills payable were then turned over to their respective committees.

The by-law granting permission to local retail merchants to close on Monday afternoons was discussed. This by-law, the council decided, will be strictly enforced.

To compensate for blocking off lighting in his kitchen when the town garage was built, Mr. W. Kosma will be approached by the town foreman to discuss a suitable arrangement.

A committee from the council will meet Mr. H. Clarke, general manager of the Coleman Collieries to discuss with him the use and maintenance of town roads used by company trucks.

A letter will be sent to the department of Public Utilities for information regarding the price dairies are authorized to charge for milk.

The annual ratepayers meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 11. It is the duty of all ratepayers to attend their annual meeting.

Nominations for councillors will begin at 11 a.m. and close sharply at 12 noon, Monday, Feb. 18.

Presentation To Mrs. Henry Claes

After the close of the regular meeting of Victoria Rebekah Lodge on Tuesday, Feb. 5, a social gathering was held. During this time Mrs. M. Jenkins, N.G., on behalf of the members presented Mrs. Claes with a picture of Crows Nest Mountain and also conveyed to her their best wishes for health, wealth and happiness in their new home at the Pacific Coast, where they will reside in the future; having purchased a home there. In her own quiet gracious manner Mrs. Claes voiced her thanks to the Sisters of the Lodge.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Claes on Friday evening last in the form of a surprise party. Following a social hour a dainty lunch was served and on behalf of the friends assembled, Mrs. Petak presented Mr. and Mrs. Claes with a beautiful table lamp as a token of remembrance and conveyed best wishes for every success in their new home at the Pacific coast. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Richards of Bellevue.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

TAKING A LOOK AT OURSELVES

The mild weather which has prevailed in the Pass for the past two weeks is being enjoyed by all, and, though it may only be wishful thinking, most of us would like to see it continue. There should be more to it than just enjoying the warmth and sunshine.

The Chinook may remind us of Spring but Spring should remind us of one duty each of us must perform to make this a more pleasant community. If one were to go on top of a hill which overlooks Coleman and look upon the town with unbiased eyes, the sight is far from pleasant. Everywhere one gazes one sees color . . . black, dark grey, gray, and light gray. In a few places remnants of ancient paint may be seen, but not many.

To the west lies West Coleman, dull and sombre looking; further east is Second street with its Babylonian gardens spilling down the hillside; to the east is East Coleman, a labyrinth of shed and twisted wire. Connecting all parts of town are black shell-shocked roads.

It is not the point of this article to condemn any one part of town, but to remind all of us that for the past few years we have been neglecting our community. Some of us were born in Coleman and will probably die here. We should at least make the town and our individual homes a bit more pleasant to live in. True, the tippie pours forth its blackness and dust dirties our washing, the paint peels, the fences rot and lean, and newspapers blow all over, but we must keep ahead of these things or be buried in filth and disease. Some of the conditions which prevail during the winter months cannot be helped. Transportation breaks down during cold weather and the ashman can't get around, streets become icy and must be sanded. These problems disappear with the Spring, and that is the time when we may catch up on our work. Let's be rid of backyard junk and sagging sheds.

The town needs a good coat of paint; Let's start by putting our brushes to soak in a little gasoline.

Letters to the Editor

11 1/2 Wells St., Toronto 4,
January 25th/52

Coleman Journal,
Coleman, Alberta.
Dear Mr. Holstead,

I was really thrilled yesterday to find the Coleman Journal dropped through the letter-box and I want to congratulate you and wish you the best of luck in the renewing of your enterprise. I am sure all the present citizens will welcome their paper back to life and the old timers who have left the town will look forward to renewing their acquaintance with the old home town through the issues that will follow. I sat down immediately and read the paper through, forgetful for a few moments of my surroundings and thoroughly enjoyed a peep through your columns into the life of the town where I spent half my life; it was good to see the names and to follow them along as to their place of abode, their business and so on and I am sure the old timers who have moved away will join me in wishing you every success and asking that you will say a friendly "hello" to all who remember me who shared the life of the town in the days that have gone.

With renewed good wishes,

Yours truly,

Mary Antrobus.

Thanks for the Coleman Journal I received yesterday. Pleased to know it is being published again and wish you every success.

Mrs. E. Fairfull, Edmonton.

Thanks for the free issue of the Coleman Journal. I'm glad to see the Journal starting up again. I always look forward to reading about our local events.

E. Houghton, Jr.,
Kamloops, B.C.

We were certainly surprised to receive the Coleman Journal again after a discontinuation of over two years. We're very glad to get the news from our old home town again and would like to wish you the best of luck with the Coleman Journal.

Mike Cakios,
Beavers Mines.

Goderich, Ontario,
Jan. 18, 1952

To the Editor,
Sir:

A picture haunts me—the picture of a widowed mother and her small son preparing their daily meal — just dandelion leaves. This is one of several touching scenes reproduced in a recent field report of the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, an organization of which many of you readers may not be aware. The undersigned has no connection whatever with this organization; the picture has stirred him to acquaint your readers with Plan's labour of love among the war children.

The Plan is non-profit, non-political, non-sectarian, independent, relief organization which has given individual help to more than 70,000 children. In its care at present are 7,000 war children of Belgium, England, France, Greece, Holland and Italy. Founded by Major John Langdon - Davies, of London, Eng., the Plan now is celebrating its 15th anniversary of service to war-stricken children.

The aim of The Plan, as its name indicates, is to have its children 'adopted' by Foster Parents. This is financial only ($180 a year) and payments may be made monthly, quarterly or yearly. One may 'adopt' a child for one year only, if one wishes, or, if unable to afford this amount, any contribution, no matter how small, will be appreciated. A person may choose the nationality, age and sex of the child he wishes to help, and correspondence with the child, through the Plan office, is encouraged. The Canadian address is: Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, Box 65, Station B, Montreal, Que.

Illustrated literature will be gladly sent upon request, without obligation to the recipient.

If you would learn what real joy is, become a Foster Parent, for only in giving do we receive, and only in helping others are we helped. In His name who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these," let us help these innocent victims of man's inhumanity to man. I hope that you who read this, as your circumstances permit, will let some child love you. Your dollars could do no finer thing!

Sincerely yours,
Ernest Barker.

All-Canadian ENERGY

More food energy comes from an acre of sugar beets than from any other crop in Canada. It is the quick energy that comes from up to three and a half tons of sugar grown per acre, plus the livestock energy that thrives on the amazingly rich sugar-beet by-products.

In a world hungry for food, the sugar beet is of vital importance. Also important to you, as a Canadian, is this fact: Sugar, refined from the sugar beets of Southern Alberta, is all-Canadian energy.

From the seeds to the final product, Alberta Sugar is the result of Canadian enterprise, Canadian farmers, and Canadian soil. Another reason why you should look for the Maple Leaf on the bag. It's the mark of Pure Alberta Sugar!

HEALTH AND PROGRESS

I was quite young at the time. I had been playing all day but to a youngster, in his early teens, what does a day's work amount to anyway! I put the horses in the stable, shoved some hay into their mangers, gave them their oats, then a lick and a promise with currycomb and brush and walked down town. The attraction was a free show. The professor claimed to be a doctor — the claim may have been justified, he looked like one. He had taken the town hall for a night and promised an excellent talk on how to keep well. It wound up as such things often do with a story of the origin, uses and doses of a great family medicine. This time it was "Kickapoo Indian Sagwa".

With him on the platform were two Indians who put on a dance. The doctor told us of the magnificent specimens of humanity on the eastern slopes of the rocky Mountains. They lived in the open in God's free sunshine. They had learned from their own medicine men the virtues of certain plants and herbs which grew on the lower slope of the mountains. They developed these products; you can guess the rest. After years of careful study a wonderful remedy "Kickapoo Indian Sagwa" was given to mankind. It was not a stab in the dark, the great council and sub-council of the Kickapoos had studied the problem for years. They had tried it at home. It had brought them health. Now they were able to give this great remedy of the Kickapoos to their brothers and sisters throughout the nation regardless of color or creed.

Nice of them, wasn't it? There was a magnetic swing to his talk. There was music in his voice. I don't know where he went when he left the Village of Gorrie (Huron County, Ontario) but we never heard of him again. Nor strange to say, never since that night have I ever heard of "Kickapoo Indian Sagwa". I lived in the West for 21 years but so far as I can recall it, no Indians of that name turned up with a bottle of "Kickapoo Indian Sagwa". If they did they escaped my vision.

The Lost Remedy

Yesterday I entered a drug store where I usually buy these essential needs of the man who must at times take a shave. He went in for some blades. He reached into a drawer and handed me a package of my favorite brand. "What are the others?" I asked, for the drawer was full of blades. "These", said he, "are the ones which fell by the wayside and the place which once knew them for a day now knows them no more."

Then I thought of my old friend, "Kickapoo Indian Sagwa" — what a lovely name! It ought to sell the product even if it was a doubtful value. I asked my druggist friend and he remembered it. Was it a friend of his in the old days? He raised his eyebrows and thought for a few moments, his mind leading him back through the years. "I can look back a long distance in the drug business", he said, "and I think I can recall that name but I fear the Indian doctor didn't sell much "Kickapoo" in Canada."

Then I was in Gorrie last summer, the little village close to the old family home. I was there in August. The visit stirred up many memories but not since the night of that distant meeting, years and years ago, have I thought of "Kickapoo Indian Sagwa" and "Kickapoo Healing Salve." My druggist had the answer. If a product isn't good it makes no difference who produces it or who puts it on the market. It must have a real value. If it hasn't it will reach the trash box in a few short weeks. If it has value, in time, it may find a market and survive, at least until a better one comes along! I doubt if there are many remedies today which can make a market by peddling the product from house to house. It costs too much.

Are our doctors and druggists worth the price? There is an easy and simple test for that blunt question. The health of the people of Canada is improving. The death rate is declining. The babies born into the world have a far better chance of living than they had in the past. There has been a sharp decline in infant mortality. In a thousand live births in the average of the years 1921-25 the mortality for the first year was 98. In 1948 it was 44. This is a great improvement. Maternal mortality has declined steadily since the 1921-25 level of 5 per thousand live births to 1.4. The general death rate has fallen from 11.2 per 1000 population to 9.3.

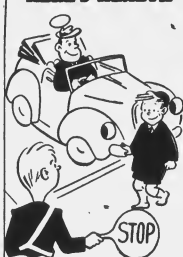

The change reflects a great improvement. Our medical bills are high but the results are satisfactory. The improvement is diffused throughout the nation. The change has been brought about by the greater skill and greater knowledge of the medical fraternity and coupled with this better hospitals, better nurses and beyond question — better patients.

Our trade returns, exports and imports, industrial production, car loadings, bank deposits and loans reflect a healthy condition of our economic affairs but the basis of economic prosperity lies in the health of our people. We must guard it as one of our great national assets.

IT ISN'T THE TOWN IT'S YOU

If you want to live in the kind of town you like.
You need not pack your clothes in a grip,
And go on a long, long hike.
You will only find what you left behind.
For there is nothing that is really new.
It's a knock to yourself when you knock your town.
It isn't the town, it's you.
Real towns are not made by men afraid,
Lest somebody else get ahead;
When everybody works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a town from the dead.
And if, while you make your personal gain,
Your neighbour can make one, too,
The town will be what you want it to be.
It isn't the town, it's you.
—The Traveller.

Civil Defence Ready to Recruit Members

The Civil Defence school had another in their series of classes on Wed., Feb. 6. Mr. Ondrus completed his instruction on chemical warfare when he dealt with the characteristics and effects of nerve gases and choking gases. Instruction was also given on use, care and adjustment of respirators.

Mr. S. Short dealt with various lessons learned by the Civil Defence in England during World War II.

The various sections of the local Civil Defence organization are now ready to recruit members who may be interested. There is a particular need for volunteers to fill the warden jobs of the organization. Anyone who is interested can attend classes and let their section commanders know or contact member of the Civil Defence mentioned in previous Journal publications.

What is civil defence? It is a way of saving lives and property, of protecting you and your family should war strike Canada. It is a way of helping to keep you going, and to keep production going, in spite of atomic, biological or chemical attacks.

Why should we prepare? Because, in the event of war, there is a strong possibility that Canadian cities, and even smaller centres, would be attacked with atomic bombs. As long as this possibility exists, the sensible thing is to prepare to meet it effectively. Civil defence is a form of insurance against a disaster which may or may not come.

Who is needed? Everybody. Self-help and mutual help are the responsibilities of each and every citizen. At least 250,000 Canadians should receive civil defence training immediately.

Everyone requires intensive education in self-protection.

When will we be needed? Right now. Your own backyard may be tomorrow's front line. Today the planes of any possible enemy country can reach every major city in Canada. The hour may not strike this year, next year or ten years from now. But it can strike tomorrow . . . and we must be ready. BE PREPARED FOR CIVIL DEFENCE!

Willow Drive Unites

There is a good and a bad side to everything that happens. The flooding of the Crows Nest River which occurred in Willow Drive recently has served to unite the people of this district and form the organization known as the Willow Drive Community Association. About a dozen residents gathered at the home of Mr. F. Rejman on Saturday, Feb. 2. Mr. W. Hammer became the chairman and Mr. L. Charlebois the secretary of the organization. Mr. J. Hanrahan was guest speaker.

The main issue under discussion was the dredging and dyking of the river, which will require a grant of $8,000.00 from the provincial government.

The organization began with a deficit of $8.55. This sum was spent by Mrs. G. S. Horn on long distance phone calls and taxis during the last flood. This sum, it was felt, should be paid by the organization.

The proposed plan to collect funds is under way and all families will be assessed 25c a month until sufficient funds are raised to keep the ball rolling. The collection is being taken up by Mr. Charlebois and Mr. Hammer.

On Sunday evening, Feb. 3, another meeting was held with Mr. N. E. Aboussafy present. The question of Willow Drive joining the Town of Coleman was discussed. Heated discussions are now taking place over backyard fences regarding taxes, light bills, roads, dog licenses, and ash collection to mention but a few. Only the future will tell how things will pan out for this newly organized community.

The residents of Willow Drive have given their consent to the government's proposal to use 100 feet of land adjacent to the CPR fence for dredging purposes.

Order of the Royal Purple Celebrate Fifth Birthday

The Order of the Royal Purple, No. 96, Coleman, celebrating their fifth birthday on Saturday, Feb. 9th, by entertaining the visiting Brother Bills and guests.

The floor work and drill put on by the degree team was exemplified in a very efficient manner and was worthy of great praise. A buffet supper was then served, the table being centered with a birthday cake. Bro. J. M. Rushton was called upon to cut the cake, after which the Associate Royal Lady, Lady Chabillon called upon Exalted Ruler Bro. D. Ennis to address the gathering.

After the buffet supper the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

The Historian book, illustrated with photographs of past activities was opened for the guests to view. It was a remarkable piece of work showing the Order's activities for the past five years and great credit is due the Historians for this book.

The floor work group included: Mrs. E. Kostelnik, captain; Isabel Spievak, pianist; Irene Caroe, Rose Moore, Anne Vasek, Hilda Caroe, Dorothy McGregor, Josie Michalsky, Kay Panek, Nellie Hotte, Velie Phillips, Mildred Zak, Mary Fauville, Celine Ford, Blanche Dutil, Lilian Lloyd, Margaret Johnson, Anne Wavercan, Chrissie Perrissini and Helen Irwin.

The Churches

ST. PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH
11:00—Morning worship.
12:15—Sunday school.
7:30—Evening worship.
8:30—Couples Club—Second Sunday of each month.
7:00 on Wednesdays, during Lent—"The Last Words of Our Lord."

You are cordially invited to attend all services.

The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's United Church was held in the church on Monday evening, January 21. The activities of the church for 1951 were reviewed, and financial reports received from each of the organizations. These reports indicated that the Church had been making steady progress during the past year.

Mr. James Glendenning, who has been recording steward almost ever since he came to Coleman, resigned from his position, expressing the opinion that it was time a younger man took over the position. Mr. John Owen was elected as recording steward. The grateful appreciation of the congregation for Mr. Glendenning's long and faithful service was expressed by Mr. Percy Dickleson.

After the election of officers for 1952, congratulations and thanks was expressed by the minister to all the organizations and workers in the Church for their faithful service through the year.

The meeting closed with a tasty lunch served in the church hall.

A meeting of the official board of St. Paul's United Church was held after the evening service, January 27. It was decided to hold the Church anniversary services on April 27 if a speaker could be procured for that date. The choice of the Board was the Rev. N. B. Mercer, of Southminster Church, Lethbridge. Rev. A. Everett Morrison was asked to see Mr. Mercer when at Presbytery, and reports that he has accepted the invitation.

The Board also made plans to hold a visitation campaign early in March.

Lent begins on February 27. Midweek services will be held in St. Paul's United Church each Wednesday evening during Lent, with services to begin at 7 p.m. All are invited. From the first Sunday in Lent until Easter the minister will preach a series of sermons about some of the men and women whose lives touched our Lord most closely during his last hours. In the evening services he will continue the study of "The Ten Commandments."

St. Paul's W. M. S. was represented at the Lethbridge Presbyterial on Feb. 5 and 6 by Mesdames N. McKinnon, E. Ash and J. Owen. The supper meeting on the first day and luncheon meeting on the second proved to be both enjoyable and instructive and they came home with a very much wider view of what the church is doing in the missionary field both at home and abroad. Solos by Lethbridge representatives were very much appreciated on both days. Rev. A. E. Morrison and Mr. W. Antrobus, lay representative, also attended, all motoring down to Lethbridge with Mr. Morrison.

(Rev. H. Moss, Rector)

Upon the sad news of the death of H. M. the late King George VI, the Anglican Church tolled the funeral bell on Wednesday last. In the evening a Memorial service was held with a large number in attendance considering the notice was so short.

The Sunday services were in the nature of a Solemn Memorial with a Requiem being held at 9 a.m., and a filled to capacity church in the evening at 7 p.m. The Canadian Legion and Ladies Auxillary paraded to the Service besides many other ex-service men and women to pay tribute to the Legions British Empire Service League's Royal Patron. Padre Harry Moss, D. C.M., chaplain to the local branch of the Legion and Rector of St. Alban's gave a very impressive sermon taking for his talk a text from the Revelation of St. John the Divine, 20th chapter, 12th verse, "And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God."

Comrade Fred Beddington sounded the 'Last Post' and 'Reveille' and a minute's silence was observed.

On Friday the 15th, the day of the King's burial in St. George's Chapel at Windsor, a Solemn Requiem will be observed in St. Alban's church at 11 a.m. Prayers will be said for the repose of the soul of the King and a solemn Te Deum sung for H. M. The Queen.

Blairmore Completes Successful Winter Carnival

A banquet at the Greenhill hotel wound up the Blairmore Winter Carnival on Sunday evening. The Coleman Board of Trade went to Blairmore Friday evening to engage the Blairmore Board of Trade in a game of broom-ball. The Coleman bunch were dressed in vividly colored, ladies' ski suits and striped sweaters and all sported cowboy hats. Roland Hill combined cowboy hat, ski-suit and sweater costume with an Hawaiian grass skirt. Decked out though they were, the local gang dropped the game by a 4-2 score.

The winner of the carnival queen contest, and consequent representative to Banff, was Miss Betty Paton of Bellevue. Mrs. Gladys McDonald of Cardonvale won the $50.00 prize from the sale of queen tickets.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our son Eric Michalski who passed away suddenly two years ago. Dear Eric, you are not forgotten. Though on earth you are no more,

Still in memory you are with us. As you always were before.

Sadly missed by Mother and Dad, Brothers and Sisters.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all who kindly gave donations at the Bank on Saturday, Feb. 2 in aid of Cecil Milley who has been off work for several months due to illness.

Included in Mr. Moore's piping itinerary also were performances at hospitals, Old Folks Homes, schools and service clubs.

A bear is reported to have been wandering the streets of Coleman in the wee hours of the morning. It is difficult to know what a bear would be doing out at this time of the year but perhaps he was one of these "night hawks" returning from a late date. Poor fellow must have been quite sleepy as he was reported to be possibly blind because he staggered into a few objects about town. Your reporter recalls a similar incident where he narrowly missed hitting a moose while driving through main street in Blairmore last November. He still has trouble convincing people he hadn't been drinking at the time. Oh, well, animals can prove embarrassing at times.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. Newfeld (nee Mary Castellano) on Feb. 3 in Edmonton, a son.
